

WORLD OF RADIO #939, produced April 29, 1998 by Glenn Hauser

- *Last UT Monday on WWCR 5070 we were on at 0430, not 0400; but this is temporary
- *My new Spanish DX report for May starts May 1 on RN's Radio-Enlace; May 7 on WWCR
- *DX Listening Digest No. 49 is now being published, mailed May 1; loads of DX news; John Norfolk's ham net list and column; my Run for the Border report finally sees print. Sample in NAm $2.50; elsewhere US$3 or 6 IRCs; subscription rates, to P.O. Box 1684, Enid, OK 73702 USA. This helps to support the continued broadcast of this free program, World of Radio
- *VOA changing format May 28 to "News Now," 24-hour all-news in English, replacing most block programs including Communications World, reduced to 9-minute slots 2-hourly
- *DX program listing at <http://www.co.umist.ac.uk/BDXC>
- *New editor for World Radio TV Handbook named; will have website
- *International Listening Guide database now offered free for non-profit use: <http://www.ilg.de/ilg-order.htm>
- *BBCWS previews: Quote, Unquote; Israel Among the Nations; You and the Law
- *Critic's hat donned: Media Zoo too exhausting to listen to; Emerald Radio ruined by deliberate noise foreground, poor audio
- *Norway's frequency changes for May, English to North America
- *Radio Moscow announcer dies
- *Croatia's main frequency to the Americas
- *Poland adjusts frequency but not time
- *Budapest election specials in May [station, not Edwin Southwell, is in Hungary!]
- *Maltese program via New York station missing the following week
- *V. of Oromo Liberation offices in Berlin ransacked
- *Via diversified media, this is World of Radio No. 939; E-mail wghauser@hotmail.com - fax 1-580-233-2948 attn Hauser; see our website for latest info updated almost daily on all our broadcasts and publications:

- *We need feedback from listeners to W.O.R. on KNOR and WGTG to justify continuing
- *Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, Malawi stations all running reduced power; times and frequencies
- *Madagascar heard on another strange frequency
- *Jordan has a new English program about Arab music
- *Pyongyang drops Kim Il Sung song; politically significant?
- *Another frequency for R. Japan's 0000 English broadcast
- *Vietnam via Russia on new frequency
- *Sarawak still on SW, contrary to Media Network
- *R. New Zealand's new frequency schedule, as revised
- *Australia has a new station on 1701 kHz

*Arkansas stations relayed on 1685 kHz
*New Texas station with DX test on 1700 May 2
*Scott Becker of the Electra heard from St. Kitts
*Havana's new SSB and AM frequencies for J98 in English
*R. Miskut, Nicaragua, heard again
*TIAWR retimed Wavescan
*HCJB changing frequencies to Europe, North America
 [really 12015, it turns out, not 12020 as published]
*Voz Cristiana, Chile, heard late into the day
*Propagation outlook from Boulder, April 28
*Visible aurora forecast around April 30 at mid-latitudes
*That's W.O.R. 939; Glenn Hauser thanking you very much for listening and closing with a
